SOCIETY

ALTHOUGH with the last of June there is the usual summer exodus from the city, and the annual rush to the seashore and mountains has begun, yet those who are remaining here are finding much pleasure in early summer get-togethers, and the week in retrospect proves an unusually full one in the social world. At fresco garden parties and receptions, as well as informal gatherings on the lawns, seem to be the order of the hour, and the late June-bridges are receiving their full share of informal entertaining.

Miss Alberta Hill Williams, whose marriage to Professor Frank Martin, of El Paso, Tex., was quite an event in the social world of Richmond and Bon Air, being celebrated on Wednesday last in St. James Church, was the guest of honor at a beautiful reception given on the lawn of Roslyn, Mrs. James B. Patton's home, near Bon Air.

Miss Ode Royster, of 303 East Franklin Street, has been entertaining a delightful house party during the week, her guests including Mr. and Mrs. James Snowden, of Charleston, S. C.; Mrs. John S. Riggs, Mrs. Ellen Southall, of Rosa Cottage, New Kent county, and other relatives.

Mrs. Oscar Swineford has been hostess in a house party at her residence, 1229 Grove Avenue.

Mrs. Swineford's guests—Misses Madeline Cutchins, Marie Sands, Ellen Cutchins, Evelyn Hope Daniels, Mary Lane and Margaret Temple—enjoyed a number of informal parties, a dance at Lakeside in their honor, and a theatre party on Wednesday with Miss Mary Carter Anderson hostess.

The wedding of Miss Mary Robbins Webb to Edward Harris Benson took place at 11 A. M. on Tuesday in Centenary Church, and Mr. and Mrs. Benson are now in New England.

Another pretty wedding of the week was that of Miss Sallie Cabell Hilliard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Hilliard, to Homer Sterling Wilson, which was celebrated on Thursday afternoon at 5:30 o'clock in the bride's home on South Fourth Street.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson will make their home in Maple Grove, Powhatan county, when they return from their bride's tour.

On Wednesday the wedding of Miss Edna Josephine Dunning, daughter of Captain Dunning, of this city, and Fred T. Hagaman, took place in Allen Avenue Christian Church, the wedding being an exceedingly pretty one. Mr. and Mrs. Hagaman are now traveling in the North and West, and will be at home to their friends in Richmond late in August.

On Friday afternoon young society was in evidence at the final tournament of the series which has been in progress all week at the Hermitage Club, and which has caused much interest in club circles.

The informal reception and dance which followed proved very bright and agreeable, as are the Hermitage affairs generally, and there were a number of visitors present.

Mrs. Wallace's Garden Party. Hostesses of country houses are beginning to plan unique entertainments for their city guests, and altogether one of the handsomest of these affairs which Richmonders have attended recently was the garden party on Thursday, in the beautiful colonial home of Mr. and Mrs. William Wallace, Hampstead, in New Kent county.

Apart from the historic interest which Hampstead holds for the visitor is the charming hospitality dispensed by the host and hostess in true Old Virginia style.

House guests who are being entertained there now are Mrs. Wallace's mother, Mrs. John Cooke, Mrs. Stafford Parker and Misses Weddell.

Boulevard-Lynn. Miss Mary Elizabeth Lynn, of Loudoun county, and Ballard Preston Boulware, of Richmond, were quietly married in Norfolk yesterday by the Rev. Sparke Melton. The wedding was private, owing to the national show, and after visiting California, will return to Richmond to take up their permanent residence at 1 East Franklin Street.

No cards to the wedding were issued. Only the nearest relatives were present. The bride wore a tailored gown of white, with hat and gloves in harmony.

The bride is a daughter of Major B. W. Lynn, who formerly represented Fauquier and Loudoun in the Virginia Senate, and who has been prominently identified with public affairs in the State for a great many years. She is a first cousin of R. Henry Lynn, president of the American National Bank, of Washington, D. C. On her mother's side she is descended from several old families in the North, including the late Governor Jones, of Rhode Island, whose ancestors eschewed the cause of the American Revolution. She was educated at the Woman's College in Richmond, possesses great musical talent, and has appeared as soprano at Confederate reunions. She is a strikingly handsome woman, and deservedly popular among all who know her.

The groom is a son of the late Aubin Lee Boulware, who will be remembered as the president of the First National Bank, and is widely connected in the State. His mother was a Miss Preston, of the old family of Prestons of Southwest Virginia. He was educated at McCabell's University School and at the University of Virginia. His business connection is with the Bank of Richmond, where he is held in high regard.

Social Meeting at Club. There will be a social meeting at the Woman's Club to-morrow afternoon from 5 to 8 o'clock, at which time the literary program for the coming season will be ready for distribution.

Marriage Announced. The marriage of Miss Lucy Curtis Scott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Oliver Scott, and Robert James McDonald, was celebrated on Wednesday evening last at 8:30 o'clock in Highland Park Methodist Church. Rev. Edson K. Odell performed the ceremony, assisted by Rev. Charles H. Boggs.

The decorations in the church were in white and green, the altar being banked with palms and illuminated with white candles in silver candelabra. Lovers' knots of white chiffon were used.

The bride was attended by Misses Eliza Scott and Mabel Herndon Beach, as maids of honor, in dainty lingerie dresses, carrying bouquets of gardenias.

Mary Lee Scott, Mabel Payne James and Blanton Scott acted as bridesmaids. They carried bouquets of Killarney roses. James T. McDonald, attendant, the bridegroom as best man, and the groomsmen were: Edward O. Friend, David H. Shelton, William M. Lear, Phillip Kessler, Robert D. Hedinger and John T. Ratcliffe.

The flower girls were little Misses Elaine Scott and Gladys Mayneville Vaughan.

Among the out-of-town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. William L. Scott, Miss Bertha B. Scott and James A. Scott, of Arcadia, Fla.; Charles B. Flow, of Davidson, N. C.; R. G. Porter, of Belton, Va., and Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Timberlake, of Ballsville, Va.

Mr. and Mrs. McDonald are making their home at "Alfred," Germantown, White.

The wedding of Miss Sara Givin White, of Abingdon, Va., daughter of the late Captain Thomas W. White, who went out with the Virginia Military Institute cadets to the battlefield of New Market in the War Between the States, and was severely wounded there, and granddaughter of United States Congressman Gibson, to Marvin Gorman, of Detroit, will be celebrated Wednesday evening, June 30, at 8 o'clock, in the home of her sister, Mrs. Arthur P. Wilmer, of 317 West Grace Street, the Rev. F. T. McFadden, of the First Presbyterian Church, officiating.

Owing to the bride's mourning the ceremony will be very quiet and only her immediate relatives and those of the groom will be present. The announcement is one of unusual interest in Richmond, where Miss White has frequently been the guest of Mrs. Wilmer and other friends.

Miss Williams to Wed Wednesday. The wedding of Miss Carolyn Williams, formerly of Virginia, but now of Presidio, Cal., where her brother, Lieutenant John Stuart Williams, has been stationed for some time, to Lieutenant Eugene Bonilla Walker, of Los Angeles, will be celebrated in the Presidio chapel on next Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock.

Miss Williams has hosts of friends through Virginia, who will be interested in the details of her wedding, and especially in Richmond, as she remembers with pleasure having visited here a number of times. She attended school in Staunton for several years.

Dr. Morgan, of St. Luke's Episcopal Church, San Francisco, will perform the ceremony. All decorations in the church are to be in pink, sweet pea blossoms being used profusely.

Miss Henrietta Walker, the groom's sister, is to attend Miss Williams as her maid of honor, and Captain James P. Robinson, of the Coast Artillery, will be best man.

Lieutenant John Stuart Williams will enter the church with the bride and give her away. The wedding gown is of white messaline heavily trimmed with old rose point lace, made empire with long train, and her veil will be caught with real orange blossoms. Her flowers will be lilies of the valley and bride roses.

Miss Walker will wear a gown of white chiffon over pink messaline, and carry pink sweet peas.

A reception will be held in the bride's home immediately after the ceremony.

Lieutenant and Mrs. Walker will leave at once for a wedding tour, returning to Presidio in time to leave on the boat for Manila, where Lieutenant Walker will be stationed for two years. Among the guests who will go to Presidio this week to attend the nuptials are Mrs. Glenn Brown, the bride's aunt, of Washington, D. C.; Mrs. E. B. Walker, of Los Angeles; Miss Henrietta Walker, Colonel J. W. Berlet, of Benicia Arsenal; Miss Laura Bonilla Walker, of San Francisco; Mrs. J. W. Ruckman, of Fort Baker; Col. Miss Marjory Ruckman, of Fort Baker; Col. Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Baldwin, of Ross, Cal.; Miss Laura Baldwin, of Ross, Cal.; and Miss Marian Huntington, of Piedmont, Cal.

Boards Called to Meet. The board of managers of the Virginia Home for Incurables, of which Branch R. Allen Auxiliary are asked to attend a called meeting at Murphy's Annex, Tuesday morning at 11 o'clock.

To Be Best Man. Howard G. Whitehead, of this city, will leave Richmond early this week to be best man at the marriage of his brother, Henry Moley Whitehead, formerly of Farmville, Va., now of Bristol, Tenn., to Miss Bonnie Belle Willis, on Wednesday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock.

The ceremony will take place in the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Willis, in Greenville, Tenn. Mr. McPherson—Bouney.

The wedding of Miss Margaret Virginia Bonney, daughter of Mrs. Claudius Bonney, of Norfolk, and Dr. John Hanson Thomas McPherson, of Athens, Ga., was celebrated last Tuesday in the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. W. V. Davis, in Savannah, with whom she has spent several winter seasons lately.

Bishop F. F. Reese performed the ceremony, which was characterized by a dignified and charming simplicity. There were no attendants.

The bride wore a gown of the Davis residence was decorated with palms and trailing vines. In the front parlor, where the marriage took place, white roses were the only flowers, while in the dining-room and halls masses of American Beauties were used.

Mr. Gould played the wedding march, and the bride was given away by her brother, E. K. Bonney.

She wore a soft white satin gown, made empire and slightly trained, and her flowers were a loose bunch of bride roses tied with a satin scarf.

The bride's going-away gown was a gray tulle suit, worn with a hand-embroidered lingerie blouse, and hat of black Milan straw, trimmed with a large willow plume.

Only the family and a few intimate friends were present.

Dr. and Mrs. McPherson are now spending their honeymoon at Asheville, N. C., and will make their future home in Athens, where Dr. McPherson is a prominent member of the university faculty.

Bargain—Farmer. Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Farmer, of 408 South Pine Street, have issued cards announcing the approaching marriage of their daughter, Jessica, Bullfinch, to William Bargain, of Richmond.

The marriage will be quietly performed on Wednesday, June 30, in the immediate families of the contracting parties, the wedding being the ceremony. Dr. J. R. Hutson will officiate.

After the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Bargain will leave for Atlantic City and will give notice of their wedding to their friends after July 10 at 117 Thirtieth Street, Newport News.

The closing social of Miss Addie Carter Williams' plant class was held Friday afternoon in her studio, 410 North Twenty-third Street. The selections were executed with much credit to both pupils and teacher.

Among those heard were: Misses Maudie Selph, Alice Wyatt, Nellie Anderson, Lettie Carter, Bessie Wyatt, Marie Rowe, Minnie Cavado, Alma Richardson.

Miss Florence Wood rendered several very beautiful vocal solos. After the musical program refreshments were served.

In and Out of Town. Miss Rosa Trant and her brother, E. L. Trant, have returned to the city after a short visit to Philadelphia and Atlantic City.

Miss Elizabeth Hotchkiss, Mrs. E. D. Hotchkiss and Mrs. Henry Hotchkiss are at Virginia Beach.

Miss Irene Moore, of Atlantic City, who has been visiting friends in Norfolk, is now with relatives here.

There will be an important called meeting of the St. John's Circle of King's Daughters to-morrow afternoon at 5 o'clock in the home of Mrs. J. A. Kratz, 2014 Jefferson Park.

Miss Oley Minor, formerly of Richmond, now of Norfolk, is quite ill with typhoid fever at her mother's home, 319 Colonial Avenue.

Miss Caroline Connor, who has been extensively entertained in Richmond since coming early in May to visit Mrs. Pelham Blackford and her aunt, Mrs. Caskie Cabell, left last week for her home in Charleston, S. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Pulliam will spend the months of July and August in Hanover county.

Mrs. Corydon Sutton and Miss Sadie Sutton, who have been at Tuskegee for some time, expect to sail from New York about July 1 to spend the summer abroad.

Pembroke Taylor has been visiting at Jefferson Park Hotel, near Charlottesville, Va.

Mrs. Richmond Moore and little daughter, Ida, and Mrs. Frank Boxley and child are spending the summer very delightfully at the home of Mrs. Douglass Cheney, in Louisa county.

Miss Elizabeth Steele has been visiting in Fredericksburg.

Miss Lucy Witt will leave in July for the White Mountains of New Hampshire to visit Miss Grace Mea-

During July and August this store will close on Saturday at 1 o'clock P. M. commencing July 10, and during the week at 5 o'clock P. M. commencing July 6
